RE: RICCARDO LO FARO

I know Riccardo for the last ten years. I have kept up my friendly relationship with him because of his human qualities.

Few years ago I have started a periodical collaboration with him. The working relationship has been very fruitful.

I appreciate his simple writing style, his integrity, the timely accomplishment of his commitments and the passionate dedication to his various activities as writer, journalist, biographer and ghostwriter.

It is a truly pleasure to work with him.

Benito Fiore,

Director
